The Volume 5 managing editors would like to thank the Department of the History of Art & Architecture at the University of California, Santa Barbara for their continued support of react/review. HAA's department chair Dr. Jenni Sorkin is one of the journal's earliest supporters, while Christine Fritsch has assisted through the years with digital aspects of design and promoting the journal on HAA's webpage. We are likewise indebted to our faculty advisors Dr. Claudia Moser and Dr. Richard Wittman for their guidance. We also thank the University of California's eScholarship team, who offer this space to platform the innovative work of emerging scholars.
