

Transmodernity

Journal of Peripheral Cultural Production of the Luso-Hispanic World

Special Issue (Spring 2017): Indigenous Knowledges and Sites of Indigenous memory

Table of Contents

Introduction	Arturo Arias	1-17
Down the Rabbit Hole and into the Moon: Nahua Perspectives in Mardonio Carballo's Tlajpialketl (2014)	Adam Coon	18-41
Bewitched Policies of Resistance: America's Legacy of Unknown Soldiers in Leslie Marmon Silko's Storyteller	Matthew Pincus	42-56
Andean and Amazonian Material Culture and Performance Traditions as Sites of Indigenous Knowledges and Memory	Michelle Wibbelsman	57-84
Balance and Respect vs. Commodification and Control: Conflicting Values in the Work of Maya-Tsotsil Author Mikel Ruiz	Sean Sell	85-104
El lenguaje como arma: la escritura del guerrero en Todas as vezes que dissemos adens de Kaka Werá Jecupé	Wesley Costa de Moraes	105-123
Straight Outta Livingston: Black Indigeneity, Wordsmithing and Code-Switching in Wingston Gonzalez's Poetry	Jennifer Gómez Menjívar	124-145
Mr. Downing, the Translocal Narrator: History and Travel Writing in Todd Downing's The Mexican Earth	Paulina Gonzales	146-165
Rebuilding a Mayan World: Awakening, Presence, and Possibilities	Silvia Soto	166-188