

Kaye Bock Award Winners

The Kaye Bock Award is given to the author (or authors) of the best paper, as determined by the editors, in each issue of the Berkeley Planning Journal that was written by a student (or a team of students). The award is named in loving memory of Kaye Bock to honor her unbounded concern for and commitment to graduate students. This award is also intended to be an eternal expression of gratitude from the Berkeley Planning Journal to Kaye for her critical and caring support during our first two decades of publication. The Kaye Bock Award is accompanied by a $250 cash gift.

2007 Marissa Ellis Plouin, University of California, Berkeley. "Chicken Coops and Machines of Interminable Errors: A History of the Grands Ensembles in Parisian Suburbs."