REYNOSO SPECIAL ISSUE

Over the last fifty years, the Chicanx-Latinx Law Review (CLLR) has provided an essential forum for the discussion of issues affecting the Latinx community, and other marginalized communities, that mainstream law journals continue to ignore. In publishing Volume One, CLLR introduced to the nation the first legal journal that recognized how common law, statutes, legislative policy, and political propositions impact the Latinx community. The United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, United States District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania, Nevada Supreme Court, and New Jersey Superior Court have cited CLLR.

CLLR welcomes submissions of articles and comments by students, scholars, and practitioners. To submit a manuscript, use the Submit Paper button on CLLR's eScholarship webpage at http://escholarship.org/uc/uclalaw_cllr, or email an attachment to: cllr@lawnet.ucla.edu. FOREWORD
HONORING JUSTICE CRUZ REYNOSO

By Chief Symposium Editor, Evelyn Sanchez Gonzalez

The Symposium Committee is proud to present a collection of personal stories and academic pieces honoring the life and legacy of Justice Cruz Reynoso. This special issue stems from our journal’s April 2022 Symposium—A Celebration of our 50th Anniversary, and an Honoring of the Life and Legacy of Justice Cruz Reynoso. A special thank you goes to everyone who participated in the planning and execution of the symposium—without you this platform would not be possible. We also extend our gratitude to the authors for their vulnerability, unique insights, and candor. We are excited to share them with the world!
