

UCLA JOURNAL OF ISLAMIC AND NEAR EASTERN LAW

VOLUME 16

2017

ISSUE 1

BACKGROUND. The UCLA Journal of Islamic and Near Eastern Law (JINEL) is published once a year. JINEL's goal is to emphasize and critically analyze all legal issues that are of particular relevance to Muslims and Middle Easterners in both Muslim and non-Muslim societies. Because the Near East is not a static geographical region, JINEL has adopted the broad policy of looking at each submission on a case-by-case basis and within the context of history to determine its relevance. Areas of traditional study (e.g., The Arabian Peninsula, the Iranian Plateau) will of course be included, yet we will not overlook areas of study that have had a significant impact on, and been acculturated in one way or another into, the region (e.g., North Africa and Central and South Asia).

JINEL welcomes submissions of articles and comments by students, scholars, and practitioners in the field of Islamic and Near Eastern law. To submit a manuscript, use the Submit Paper button on JINEL's eScholarship site at http://escholarship.org/uc/uclalaw_jinel, or send it as an email attachment to: jinel@lawnet.ucla.edu. Alternatively, you may mail a hard copy to the address below:

Manuscripts should be double-spaced, with wide margins, and include the author's name, address, telephone number, and professional background. JINEL follows a modified version of the transliteration systems as established by the Library of Congress and the International Journal of Middle East Studies. However, manuscripts should not contain any diacritical marks except for ayn and hamza. Citations must conform to THE BLUEBOOK: A UNIFORM SYSTEM OF CITATION (19th ed. 2010).

SUBSCRIPTIONS. Print copies of JINEL are available through the journal's eScholarship site. Subscribers will be notified via email of each new issue release.

DISCLAIMER. The views expressed in JINEL are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the Editors or the University of California. Although the Journal has endeavored to ensure the accuracy of all cited materials, we encourage future readers to review all primary sources where appropriate and to use traditional legal research to verify that all information is current and accurate. The Journal has relied on the authors' expertise for the substantive accuracy of citations to non-English sources and foreign citations may not appear in Blue Book Format. Translations are the authors' unless otherwise noted.
