

UCLA JOURNAL OF ISLAMIC AND NEAR EASTERN LAW

VOLUME 22

2025

ISSUE I

BACKGROUND. The UCLA Journal of Islamic and Near Eastern Law (JINEL) is published once a year. JINEL's goal is to emphasize and critically analyze all legal issues that are of particular relevance to Muslims and Middle Easterners in both Muslim and non-Muslim societies. Because the Near East is not a static geographical region, JINEL has adopted the broad policy of looking at each submission on a case-by-case basis and within the context of history to determine its relevance. Areas of traditional study (e.g., the Arabian Peninsula, the Iranian Plateau) will of course be included, yet we will not overlook areas of study that have had a significant impact on, and been acculturated in one way or another into, the region (e.g., North Africa and Central and South Asia).

JINEL welcomes submissions of articles and comments by students, scholars, and practitioners in the field of Islamic and Near Eastern law. Our preferred method of submission is via our Scholastica account: <https://jinel.scholasticahq.com>. Alternatively, you may email an e-copy to jinel@lawnet.ucla.edu. Any books for review, hard-copy submissions, or other mail should be addressed to:

Journal of Islamic and Near Eastern Law

Manuscripts should be double-spaced, with wide margins, and include the author's name, address, telephone number, and professional background. JINEL follows a modified version of the transliteration systems as established by the Library of Congress and the International Journal of Middle East Studies. However, manuscripts should not contain any diacritical marks except for ayn and hamza. Citations must conform to The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (21st ed. 2020).
