ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Board of Editors of the Black Law Journal extends its appreciation to the many persons and organizations who have contributed to its founding and who continue to give significant and crucial support.

Words acknowledging those who assisted in creating this new forum only partially express our gratitude. The Journal's inception took place in space generously loaned by Dr. Arthur Smith, director of the UCLA Center for Afro-American Studies. All of Dr. Smith's staff, particularly Mr. Leroy Higginbotham graciously aided and supported our efforts.

During those difficult beginning months, many others made valuable contributions to the Journal. An enormous amount of services and resources were supplied by Mrs. Toni Cook and Mrs. Karen Frye of the UCLA Alumni Development Center. The Black Law Students Association of UCLA assisted by paying for the copying of manuscripts and by contributing student staff members for the Journal. Mr. Ken Long in Engineering Reports Group and Mrs. Jean Petrelli of the Mailing Division of UCLA gave invaluable technical assistance. And, in an excellent display of good faith, the UCLA Student Fund and the UCLA Foundation donated funds for operational costs.

It was because of the faith and encouragement as well as the support of these and other individuals and organizations too numerous to mention, that the BLACK LAW JOURNAL was born. It is only fitting that a Journal seeking to help, was created by people so willing to do the same.
