

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Pacific Basin Law Journal has recently concluded an arrangement with the Committee on Law of the Association for Asian Studies, the principal professional society in the field of Asian studies in North America. Commencing with its next issue, the Journal will publish information about professional and scholarly developments in the field of Asian law, including significant U.S. library acquisitions of Asian legal materials, major international conferences, and the like. This new Journal section will replace the Asian Law Forum which had been published by the Committee. On behalf of the Committee, the Journal also intends to conduct a survey of persons interested in Asian law, updating and supplementing a similar survey conducted by the Committee in 1978.

The Journal encourages its readers to send pertinent news and information regarding Asian law to:

Asian Law Forum Editor
UCLA Pacific Basin Law Journal
UCLA School of Law
Los Angeles, CA 90024

