

Ghana Studies

Journal of the Ghana Studies Council

Ghana Studies is a peer-reviewed journal of academic work in all fields concerning the peoples of Ghana. It appears annually. Volume 5 (2002) will feature a special collection of articles on education in Ghana, guest-edited by Akosua Adomako Ampofo of the University of Ghana, including papers by Francis Agbodeka, David Owusu-Ansah, Mansah Prah, and Kwasi Ansu-Kyeremeh. In addition, this volume will also include contributions on a variety of subjects by Gérard Chouin, Ivor Wilks, Nana Arhin Brempong, and Sjaak van der Geest.

Subscriptions to Ghana Studies are a benefit of membership in the Ghana Studies Council. Membership information may be obtained by contacting the Council president:

Professor Ray Kea
Department of History
University of California, Riverside
Riverside, CA 92521
email: <rkea1@uci.edu>

Contributions to the journal are especially welcome. Instructions for manuscript submission, as well as tables of contents of back issues, may be found at the journal's web site:

<http://people.tamu.edu/~yarak/ghana_studies.html>

Single copies of back issues may be obtained by contacting the Program of African Studies, University of Wisconsin-Madison at:

<africa@intl-institute.wisc.edu>

Subscription Information

AFRICANA

African Political Economy; 12.2—African History; 14.3—Women of Africa and the World; 15.3—Special Issue
on Somalia; 19.1—Nigeria Focus;
22.1/2—Focus on the Horn of Africa;
23.1—Special
Issue; 24.1—Education in Africa;
25.1—Africa, 28.1—UCLA Graduate Conference

Subscription rates as follows:

$23.00
$25.00
$18.00

$32.00
$36.00
$28.00

$12.00
$13.00

Include 3 issues. For Airmail please add $10.00 per single issue for airmail.

Subscriptions payable to African Studies Center and mail to:

African Studies Center
Box 951310
Los Angeles, CA 90095-1310 USA