

UFAHAMU
JOURNAL OF THE AFRICAN ACTIVIST ASSOCIATION

A UCLA African Studies Center Sponsored Publication

UFAHAMU is an interdisciplinary journal of African Studies. Named after the Kiswahili word for comprehension, understanding or being and remaining aware, the journal represents strong and committed views about social issues, addressing both the general reader and the scholar. Since its establishment in 1970, UFAHAMU continues to challenge and correct misconceptions about Africa, thereby creating relevant criteria for African Studies. It publishes material supportive of the African revolution and socially significant works on African history, politics, economics, sociology, anthropology, law, planning and development, literature, and other topics about the continent and the African diaspora.
