UFAHAMU

Journal of the African Activist Association

UFAHAMU is an interdisciplinary journal representing a strong and committed voice in the area of African studies. Its content is focused for both the general reader and the scholar. Established in 1970, UFAHAMU continues to reassess old assumptions and to search for new and relevant criteria in African studies. It has published definitive studies on the African Liberation Movements, and has illuminated new and significant perspectives on aspects of African history, politics, economics, sociology, anthropology, and literature.
