

THE LAST WORD

by

Sandra Jackson

The last word
is with the people

The last word is change

now
today tomorrow next year ultimately inevitably ...locally, nationally, internationally

Change is forthcoming Change is the nature of all things

We must never lose hope nothing is insurmountable when the people struggle to win

For we shall have the last word
We are the last word
We will have the last word
We will be the last word

We are the WORD
We will be heard

Our movements will be felt
When the decisive blow is dealt
...Our STRUGGLE will supercede all others

For we are the last word

We will have the last word
We are the last word

The last word is change

CHANGE is in the hands of the PEOPLE
Our motto is change, resistance, rebellion and REVOLUTION
Yes, with certainty,

WE will win
The people will win
We will change things
Our changes will be the last word
We will have the last word
We will be the last word
