CONTRIBUTIONS

UFAHAMU will accept contributions from anyone interested in Africa and related subject areas. Contributions may range from scholarly articles and book reviews to freelance writing and poetry.

Manuscripts may be of any length, but those of 15-25 pages are preferred. The Editorial Board, however, reserves the right to abbreviate any manuscript in order to fit page requirements. All contributions must be clearly typed and double-spaced, with footnotes gathered at the end. Contributors should endeavor to keep duplicate copies of all their manuscripts.

All correspondence - manuscripts, subscriptions, books for review, inquiries - should be addressed to the Editor-in-Chief at the above address.

EDITORIAL NOTES

As we approach our eighth year in publication, we intend to generate a continuing debate on imperialism as it relates to Africa. We are seeking publishable material in the related subject matter; and it should be clear, to the point, bold and progressive. As a journal we intend to remain independent and non-sectarian. We shall continue to be a forum for innovative and radical perspectives in African studies. We are opposed to apartheid and imperialism in Africa on principle. Consequently, we discourage reactionary discussion about it.

We hope to continue to bring you well researched and documented articles focusing on past and present Africa. Such articles with a "lot of meat" made Ufahamu famous: its subject matter can be anything related to Africa and its peoples.

The forthcoming issues will continue to be organised around certain themes. For this particular issue we chose to link Africa with the Third World struggles. We chose to reflect on the past and present struggles of the developing countries. In this issue we also bring you some announcements and information in the form of excerpts from other journals, magazines, and newspapers. The section on reviews of books, journal articles, other publishable materials, and even films will be resumed in the next issue in strength.

Volume VIII Number 3 will re-examine more critically the problem of Southern Africa and Imperialism. The issue will be dedicated to Steve Biko and the political prisoners who have died or are still in the jails of South Africa.

The African Activists Association and the Editorial Board of Ufahamu wish to extend their deep gratitude to I.N.C. Aniebo for successfully carrying out his responsibility of editing the journal for the past year and a half.

Out of genuine appreciation rather than custom we all say a big: THANK YOU !
